

ADJECTIVES CHART

EnglishGrammarSoft

(Printable)

Adjective Type	Definition	Words	Examples
Possessive Adjective	It modifies a noun by telling whom it belongs to.	My, her, his, its, your, our, their	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Your mother's cooking is delicious! ✓ My apple is red and fresh. ✓ She was sad because she lost her job.
Absolute Adjective	Absolute adjectives are adjectives that do not have any comparative or superlative forms.	Probably, unique, total, fatal, equal, final, finite	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ The Hope Diamond is unique in its beauty and size. ✓ The jury was unanimous in its decision. ✓ The disease was fatal for many people.
Adjective of Quality	It shows the quality of a noun or a pronoun.	Hot, rich, wise, red, fresh, active, small	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ The wise man never talks about himself. ✓ A rich person can be rich in many ways: fame, money, possessions or knowledge. ✓ The new book on management is insightful.
Adjective of Quantity	It shows the quantity of a noun.	Much, a lot, little, some, half, enough	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ I've got little time left today. ✓ I have a lot of money. ✓ There's half a cake left if you want some.
Adjective of Number	It expresses the numbers of the noun or a pronoun.	Two, fifth, any, many, each	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ There are five books lying on the table. ✓ It is my second attempt to pass the exam. ✓ Each of you have to work for betterment of society.
Adjective of Shape	It represents the shape of the noun.	Round, steep, flat, curved, wide	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ I have a curved screen laptop. ✓ The mountain has a steep slope. ✓ The road was flat and straight.
Adjective of Color	It shows the color of a noun or pronoun.	Orange, black, blue, gray	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Do you like white rose? ✓ The green apples are delicious. ✓ The road was flat and straight.
Adjective of Origin	It describes another person or thing in origin.	French, Greek, Spanish	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ I am learning French language. ✓ Tom has a Greek friend. ✓ My Spanish friend sent me a gift.
Demonstrative Adjective	Describes the position of some one or something	This, that, these, those	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ This book is mine. ✓ Those hills are high. ✓ That chair is comfortable.
Indefinite Adjective	These tell us 'how many' or 'how much' of something	All, any, several, both, another	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ All the students are present in class. ✓ Both sisters are intelligent. ✓ I bought several grocery items from the store.
Interrogative Adjective	These tell us 'how many' or 'how much' of something	All, any, several, both, another	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ All the students are present in class. ✓ Both sisters are intelligent. ✓ I bought several grocery items from the store.

EnglishGrammarSoft